Project demos at Hack Western 12

A Weekend of Innovation

36 hours, 80+ projects, 320+ students, and 13 years standing.

Hack Western is one of Canada's largest student-run hackathons and serves as a thriving community that ignites North America's brightest students and ideas. Over the weekend, top students from across North America team up to build innovative web, mobile, and hardware solutions that address real-world problems. Hack Western empowers participants with cutting-edge tools, mentorship, and hands-on learning, allowing a transformation from raw ideas into working prototypes.

By sponsoring Hack Western, you're not only investing in the future of tech, you're also gaining direct access to a pipeline of high-potential talent, fresh perspectives, and meaningful brand exposure. Your support enables us to break down barriers to entry, expand access to industry mentorship, and create a space where your company can engage with tomorrow's leaders in technology. We've seen just how transformative this experience can be for students and sponsors alike.
